Target Audience: This forum is open to any Registered Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Trainee Nurse Practitioners and Healthcare Support Workers employed in a General Practice environment. We especially would like to welcome Advanced Nurse Practitioners working in General Practice and HCAs who have not had the opportunity to benefit from the Stockport General Practice Nurses forum before.

Aim: This forum aims to keep our nursing workforce updated with current information and also provide an opportunity to network and share best practice.

Content for Wednesday 29th April: The forum will have an Education, Workforce Development and CPD focus to include:

- Young Adults Diabetes Team, to cover
 - Diabetes and exercise advice
 - Insulin adjustments for Type 1 diabetes
 - An overview of their service
- Introduction to WorkWell, supporting people with health conditions stay in work

The presentations and discussion around education, workforce and CPD will be 45 minutes – 1 hour in duration. There will also be a 30-minute open door for any Stockport updates, discussion and networking.

Presenters: Colleagues from the Young Adults Diabetes Team and the Stockport Locality Education and Training Team.

Refreshments Provided: This forum will be supported by a Pharma company, details to follow.

Cost: This forum is free of charge for all those who work in Stockport General Practices.
